Index to Volume 40 (2013)

Volume 40 Number 1 – March

Editorial 2
Graham Hallett and Fiona Hallett

Disability and adult life: dependence on social security among former students with special educational needs in their late twenties 5
Jon Olav Myklebust

Blame, guilt and the need for 'labels': insights from parents of children with special educational needs and educational practitioners 14
Karen Broomhead

An evaluation of the collaborative mode of professional development for teachers in special schools in Hong Kong 22
Fuk-chuen Ho and Michael Arthur-Kelly

The role of SENCos as leaders 33
Catherine Tissot

Focus on Practice 41
'Why should I be like bloody Rain Man?!' Navigating the autistic identity
Andrea MacLeod, Ann Lewis and Christopher Robertson

Points from the SENCo-Forum 50
Looking at learning through the student's eyes
Klaus Wedell

Politics Page 51
John Perry

Volume 40 Number 2 – June

Editorial 56
Graham Hallett and Fiona Hallett

Student behaviour and emotional challenges for teachers and parents in Hong Kong 58
Chris Forlin and Paul Cooper

Parental account of support for specific learning difficulties in Hong Kong 65
Kim Fong Poon-McBrayer and Philip Allen McBrayer

Can mimetics, a theatre-based practice, open possibilities for young people with learning disabilities? A capability approach 72
Jo Trowsdale and Richard Hayhow

Barriers to dance training for young people with disabilities 80
Imogen J. Aujla and Emma Redding

Focus on Practice 86
Neuro-linguistic programming and altered states: encouraging preparation for learning in the classroom for students with special educational needs
Voldis Kudliskis

Points from the SENCo-Forum 96
Dilemmas about calling educational needs 'special': attributing causes
Klaus Wedell

Politics Page 97
John Perry

Volume 40 Number 3 – September

Editorial 103
Graham Hallett and Fiona Hallett

'What's a fixed-term exclusion, Miss?' Students' perspectives on a disciplinary inclusion room in England 106
Gwen Gilmore

Questions to assess learning as a communicative routine for inclusion 114
Órla Ní Bhroin

Comparing children's attitudes towards disability 124
Bernadette Cairns and Kirstie McClatchey

Statements of special educational needs and mainstream secondary physical education in north-west England 130
Anthony Maher

Focus on Practice 137
Autism and multidisciplinary teamwork through the SCERTS Model
Paola Molteni, Karen Guldberg and Nick Logan

Points from the SENCo-Forum 146
Patching-up or system change?
Klaus Wedell

Politics page 147
John Perry

Volume 40 Number 4 – December

Editorial 152
Graham Hallett and Fiona Hallett

Parents' experiences of applied behaviour analysis (ABA)-based interventions for children diagnosed with autistic spectrum disorder 154
Catherine McPhilemy and Karola Dillenburger

Rapid recovery in sub-optimal readers in Wales through a self-paced computer-based reading programme 162
Phil Reed, Antony Hughes and Gordon Phillips

Exploration of teachers' awareness and knowledge of (Central) Auditory Processing Disorder ((C)APD) 167
Anita Ryan and Maria Logue-Kennedy

Self-determination of young children with intellectual disability: understanding parents' perspectives 175
Araceli Arellano and Feli Peralta

The influence of computer games on visual–motor integration in profoundly deaf children 182
Vesna Radovanovic

Focus on Practice 189
Practical considerations when supporting transitions for pupils with speech, language and communication needs
Ruth Perfitt

Points from the SENCo-Forum 197
The draft SEN Code – ensuring progress?
Klaus Wedell

Politics page 198
John Perry

Index to Volume 40 (2013) 201

© 2013 NASEN
DOI: 10.1111/1467-8578.12046